Beyond Freud: From Individual to Social Psychoanalysis ...

This series of 28 lectures was given by Sigmund Freud (1856 1939), the founder of psychoanalysis, during the First World War and first published in English in 1920. The purpose of this general introduction was to present his work and ideas as they had matured at that point to a general public; and even though there was to be considerable development and change over the ensuing years, these talks still offer a valuable and remarkably approachable entry point to his revolutionary concepts.
