Fighting Fear, Winning the War at Home

But for those left behind it's also the start of their own battle. This collection of devotions is written to help those left behind. Our oldest son went straight from high school to Marine Corps boot camp to Iraq, where he served as an infantry Marine. I know firsthand, the fear and helplessness that affects those close to a soldier at war. I also know that somehow, God can bring comfort and peace to a situation that seems hopeless.
