Two thousand years ago, Jesus walked across Galilee; everywhere he traveled he gained followers. His contemporaries are familiar historical figures: Julius Caesar, Caesar Augustus, Herod the Great, Pontius Pilate.

The Last Days of Jesus: His Life and Times Catholic Sistas

And while The Last Days of Jesus: His Life and Times presents Christ in this manner, it does so in a way where we can connect with the very human nature that was present alongside of the very Godly nature that encompassed Jesus' being. All my life I have been taught these stories and yet this book presents them in a very human way. By the time I was done reading, I felt like I knew another side of not only Jesus, but all of His disciples as well.
