'Period' poems Hello Poetry

Just another period poem, Fighting the odds stained in blood Detesting men with pen sword building a throne of emotions And ruling in the side of hormones

Rubyfloetics: A Period Poem Mixtape by Yolanda Wisher ...

Period poems can run the full gamut; they can be life affirming, spiritually grounding, overly sensational and catechistic. They are often misunderstood and sidestepped. But I dig them and celebrate them all because writing a poem, creating art, and speaking up and openly about menstruation continues to be a radical, subversive, and necessary act.
