The Minimalist Mindset is not a book about tidying up (that book has already been written) and it is not a book about the philosophical exploration of minimalism (that book already exists too). Instead, The Minimalist Mindset is a book about a down and dirty process you can use to make deliberate decisions about how to prioritize how you live your life.

The Minimalist Mindset: The Practical Path to Making Your ...

One of the better books on minimalist living, or more correctly, the mindset of minimalist living. The point of needing to subtract to add to your life runs throughout the book. It gives you an overall way of looking at your life in relation to things, unlike other books on minimalism that focus on just purging your stuff. This book goes above purging and makes no issue of keeping items, just keeping those items that you want for your life.
